

Notice of Passage of EDC By-Laws – York Region

On June 2, 2009, the York Catholic District School Board and the York Region District School Board held concurrent public meetings and respectively passed Education Development Charge By-law 194 for the York Catholic District School Board and By-law 2009-02 for the York Region District School Board. Under s. 257.65 of the Education Act, any person or organization may appeal either or both of the by-laws through the Ontario Municipal Board by filing with the secretary of the appropriate school board a notice of appeal setting out the objection to that board’s by-law and the reasons supporting the objection. The last day for appealing the by-laws is July 13, 2009.

The education development charges imposed by the by-laws as of July 1, 2009 are set out in the following table:

Table with 4 columns: Category, Combined, York Region District School Board, York Catholic District School Board. Rows include Residential Development and Non-Residential Development with associated charges per unit or per square foot.

The by-laws apply to all the land in York Region. Accordingly, no key map showing the lands to which the by-laws apply is provided.

Persons interested in examining a copy of the by-laws may do so during business hours at each of the respective school board head offices:
