

Congratulations to all of the students who demonstrated the virtue reverence during the month of April.

| Teacher Name | Student Name | Reason for Student being selected for Virtue |
|----------------------|---------------------|--|
| Pianezza | Katerina M. | Katerina is a girl who demonstrates a reverent attitude toward Jesus and all living creatures. She listens in awe to stories about Jesus, and models His kindness toward other adults, children, and animals alike. This was seen especially when discussing Earth Day, when she contributed ways in which she can help save our Earth and all of God's creatures. |
| Sansalone | Keira C. | Keira demonstrates reverence as she respects insects and flowers, as well as God's other creations. During Earth Day activities she contributes in a positive way and creates informative posters on how to respect the planet. |
| Avolio | Olivia O. | Olivia is an excellent role model for her peers. She comes to school every day with Jesus in her heart. Her awe and wonder of life is evident as she interacts joyfully and respectfully with both adults and peers. |
| Mastrogiacomo | Talia T. | Talia is a joyful girl who comes to school every day with Jesus' teachings in mind. She is eager to share with her classmates the connections she makes to bible stories in her everyday life. Talia treats others as God's creations by showing kindness towards everyone and celebrating friendships. |
| Tesolin | Adrian V. | Adrian demonstrates reverence everyday as he enjoys the awe of God's creations. He is most happy when digging in the school's butterfly garden. In addition, he takes care of God's natural gifts as he participates in planting and watering school plants. |
| Babic | Tiziana T. | Tiziana brings a reverent attitude to our classroom and OLA every day. She is a compassionate, kind, and respectful student. She honours all of God's gifts of life with awe and wonder. |
| Pezzelli | Lorenzo G. | This month's recipient of the virtue award for reverence is a student who consistently, and unconditionally respects his teachers and other adults, his peers, himself, and most importantly God. |
| McGarvey | Mireya E. | Mireya has a reverent attitude toward God. Her actions demonstrate that she believes the world is holy. We are holy. All life is holy. |
| Gabriel | Sara G. | Respect, empathy and understanding are just some of the words that can be used to describe Sara. She will always look at the positive side of every situation and will often forgo her own happiness to make sure that the people around her are |

| | | |
|------------------|----------------------|--|
| | | happy. She has a uncanny ability to read any situation that is going on around her and adjust accordingly. You can find her with a warm and kind smile on her face from the time that she comes to school till the moment she leaves. She lives God's golden rule fully and treats everyone, no matter who they are, with the same kindness, respect and love that she would like in return. |
| Carinci | Leila D. | Leila sees beauty in each day. She honours God's creations by following in Jesus' footsteps through her actions and words. She is a kind, thoughtful and respectful student whose smile makes our day bright. |
| Kazemi | Mattea M. | Mattea demonstrates the virtue of reverence by showing a great deal of respect for everyone around her. She always shows concern for the well-being of her classmates. She goes out of her way to make sure that we have a loving and caring environment, where everyone can feel included. |
| Carnevale | Lily M. | Lily demonstrates reverence by showing respect for her classmates, teachers, and God. Lily is always well- intentioned, and consistently puts her heart in her work and relationships with others. |
| Pileggi | Alexandria K. | Alexandria demonstrates reverence everyday. She displays love and respect towards her fellow classmates. She puts forth her best effort and trusts in God's grace to help and guide her with her work, and relationships with others. |

