

Prayer for Saskatchewan

*God of Compassion and Healing, In our sadness we turn to you and ask your guiding Spirit to console all those who have been affected by the tragic loss in James Smith Cree Nation and Weldon, Saskatchewan.
During these difficult days please walk with all who grieve and embrace all who stand in solidarity against all forms of violence. We pray for peace for all who struggle, and for those who offer support, that they will all be comforted.
May the community know your love through the actions of all who provide solace.
May they hear your voice in the prayers that people offer at this sad time.
May this tragedy call us all to work for an end to violence and hatred.
Help us to create safe, welcoming spaces
for all to learn, work and grow.
Amen*
